USA,) Plaint	tiff,)
v.		ORDER
JOHN HENRY MOORE,)
DEFE	ENDANT.)
)

THIS MATTER is before the Court upon motion filed by counsel for the defendant for another continuance of the trial based, in part, on concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic. (Doc. No. 56).

In order to protect the defendant's interest in a speedy trial, the Court finds a statement of the defendant's own position on counsel's requested continuance would assist the determination under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that counsel shall file a pleading after consulting with the defendant stating whether the defendant consents to the requested continuance. After such pleading is filed, the Court will determine the merits of the instant motion.
